

Neighbours celebrate the holiday season AT CARDINAL POINT

Setting the tone for the holiday season, Geranium Homes held the third annual open house for residents and owners-in-waiting of the company's flagship master-planned community, The Neighbourhoods of Cardinal Point in Stouffville. Guests enjoyed drinks and hors d'oeuvres, the singing of carollers and a chance to visit and take photos with Santa Claus. The gathering was held in one of the two new bungalow model homes that recently opened to showcase the first detached homes offered for sale at Cardinal Point.

"This is a great opportunity for our homeowners to get to know each other a little better, and for many it was their first visit to our new model homes," says Sue Webb Smith, director of marketing. "We hold a variety of different events throughout the year and they are always well attended."

In addition to the festivities, copies of Geranium's new self-published children's book, Coby Builds a House, were available for a suggested donation of $10. "The book makes a lovely gift for pre-schoolers." All proceeds collected through Coby Builds a House from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31, were donated to CardiacKids in support of the Hospital for SickKids Foundation.
