

GERANIUM'S HOLIDAY SEASON CELEBRATIONS

Geranium Homes held seasonal gatherings for homeowners and guests at two of their new home communities – Cardinal Point in Stouffville and Forest Trail Estates in Ballantrae.

Over 100 guests attended the Forest Trail Estates Home for the Holidays reception held at the 4,266-square-foot Model Home, which was lavishly decorated with a 12-foot Christmas tree, and accompanying decor for the occasion. Families enjoyed a lamp-lit horse and carriage ride along neighbourhood streets where 15 homes are now under construction. Catering provided an around-the-world menu of assorted delights and children created gingerbread masterpieces to take home.

At The Neighbourhoods of Cardinal Point in Stouffville guests were treated to a Holiday Open House held within Geranium's model townhomes. Visitors enjoyed seasonal refreshments, the sounds of a singing quartet, and Santa and Mrs. Claus paid a visit, arriving in their sleigh to hear the children's wishes and pose for photos. ■ geraniumhomes.com

ANI BOGOVIC RECEIVES AWARD

Ani Bogovic, a founder of the industry association Women in Construction (WINC), was recently honoured with the Nick Volk Award for Perseverance at the Toronto Habitat for Humanity annual volunteer appreciation dinner.

Bogovic has been actively involved with Habitat Toronto since 2008.

During the first Women Build, she recruited a team of 30 women to participate in the inaugural event and personally led crews during the five-day build. Bogovic was inspired by her experience to do more the next time and set an ambitious goal to recruit 50 women to join her team. Her hard work and networking resulted in the recruitment of 50 women and her team has successfully raised over $60,000 for the Women Build campaigns. Bogovic has become a great friend of Habitat and looks forward to next year's Women Build where she will lead another crew.

Interested volunteers can visit WINC's website to sign up for details on the next Women Build event. ■ iwinc.ca
